Who is the patron saint of werewolves? Which saint died and went to hell, then came back to life? Which two saints practiced black magic before switching to Catholicism? You'll learn the answers to these and more in Vicki Quade's Halloween comedy, Holy Ghost Bingo: God, Goblins, & Games, coming Saturday, October 11, for one performance only, at Saint George Church, 6707 W. 175th St., Tinley Park.

The premise is that Mrs. Mary Margaret O'Brien, a former nun, is here tonight to raise money while playing bingo and talking about Halloween traditions, scary movies, condemned board games, haunted churches, the best candy, and the worst costumes. It's a crazy night of Halloween trivia, audience interaction, and the funniest costume contest you've ever seen.

Add to that a box of wacky prizes, some Halloween candy, fun bingo cards, and a lot of Catholic humor for a night of entertainment you'll never forget.

And in this interactive bingo show, you'll actually play bingo. What could be more fun?! You'll be laughing so hard, you'll have to be careful watching your bingo cards!

You don't have to be Catholic to enjoy this show. But it pays to love bingo!

Go ahead.... resurrect your social life in this guaranteed night of divine entertainment!

More fun than Sodom and Gomorrah!!

So much fun, you'll have to confess it!!!

Tickets are available at the parish office. Questions? Call 708-532-2243.
