

LAUGH AT SISTER'S TAKE ON MODERN SINS IN A MODERN WORLD
HIT COMEDY, PUT THE NUNS IN CHARGE!
COMING TO SAINT GEORGE CHURCH
ONE NIGHT ONLY
SATURDAY, JANUARY 17, 2026

One of the creators behind the original "Late Nite Catechism" now returns with a new hit comedy, and it's just as irreverent – and nostalgic.

Put the Nuns in Charge! will be performed one night only at Saint George Church, on Saturday, January 17, 2026.

"Where Late Nite Catechism deals with saints and gets its humor from the actual catechism we were taught, for this one, I was looking for something more contemporary," Quade said. "Here, the idea is that Mother Superior is looking at modern sins, and how we treat each other."

Consequently, the show pokes fun at everything from celebrities to revealing clothing, driving habits, social media, and cell phone use – for starters.

However, this is no one-woman show. Audience members will find themselves once more in a classroom, taking an active role in the evening's lesson.

"It was easy coming up with the material," Quade added. "I based the play on the 'Seven Deadly Sins,' and just by picking up a newspaper, you find lots of examples."

The show is part stand-up comedy, and part catechism class.
